

IMPLEMENTATION REPORT OF BEST CORPORATE PRACTICES

BANCO DAVIVIENDA S.A.

LEGAL REPRESENTATIVE: DR. EFRAÍN FORERO FONSECA

LEGAL REPRESENTATIVE APPOINTED FOR SENDING THE IMPLEMENTATION REPORT: DR. MAURICIO VALENZUELA GRUOSSO.

REPORT PERIOD: YEAR 2015

REPORT DATE: JANUARY 25, 2016

INTRODUCTION

The implementation of the recommendations of the new Code of Best Corporate Practices of Colombia should be reported by issuers to the Financial Superintendence of Colombia (FSC) by this Implementation Report of Best Corporate Practices.

This report is aimed to inform the securities market about the implementation or not of the recommendations of the Code by each issuer. To this end, for each recommendation there are three boxes for YES, NO and N.A. (not apply), as well as a space to supplement its response as follows:

If the answer is yes, the issuer must briefly describe the way such implementation has been made. If not, the issuer must explain the reasons why it has not been adopted.

The N.A. response can only be provided by the issuer in cases that for legal reasons it is not possible to adopt the recommendation. In this case, the issuer must indicate precisely the law or regulation which prevents it.

Given that, some recommendations are made up of a number of specific aspects, is important to emphasize that these will only be understood as implemented if all of the aspects that compose them are met, unless the reason for not adopting some is of legal nature, which should be indicated.

Each recommendation has a box to indicate the date the issuer first implemented it. Additionally, there will be a box where the dates on which changes are made will be recorded.

Finally, when the issuer by its nature does not have the specific body to which the recommendation relates it shall be understood that it refers to the equivalent body within the entity.

I. SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS AND EQUAL TREATMENT

Measure No. 1: The principle of equal treatment.

1.1. The corporation gives equal treatment to all the shareholders who have similar shares and conditions, without granting access to privileged information to some shareholders above others.

1.1 Measure Implementation YES ☒ NO ☐ N/A ☐

YES. Briefly indicate: Article 3 of the Guide to Rights and Obligations of Shareholders states that Banco Davivienda S.A. will ensure that all Company shareholders receive fair and equal treatment. Therefore, it will seek that each shareholder receives timely, rapid and complete answers to the concerns and requests submitted regarding information on matters related to mandatory disclosure.

6.2. Under the previous provision, the holding company and its most important subordinates have defined a framework for institutional relations through the subscription of an agreement. Such an agreement is public, has been approved by the Board of Directors of each of the companies, and it regulates the topics indicated in recommendation 6.2.

6.2 Measure Implementation YES ☒ NO ☐ N/A ☐

YES. Briefly indicate: In relation to this recommendation it is important to note: - The parent company and its subsidiaries, through the Corporate Governance Code approved by the Board, establish relevant aspects such as: the companies that make up Grupo Empresarial Bolívar, business philosophy, principles and values, mission and vision of the Bolivar family, leveraging the synergistic advantages of working under the premise that all Company shareholders have fair and equal treatment, without regard to the number of shares each owns. - The general public is informed of the business conducted between the parent and its subsidiaries, such as the signing of contracts for network usage and promotion and advertising of financial services through the parent, among others. - Article 13 of the Manual on Conflicts of Interest and Privileged Information, classifies the operations performed by the Bank with each of its affiliates as follows: a) Market Operations: Those operations in the process of issuing, placement, distribution and trading of securities registered in the National Registry of Securities and Issuers - RNVE. b) Ordinary Course Operations: Those operations established in the corporate purpose and authorized by law for entities supervised by the Financial Superintendence of Colombia. c) Administrative or Support Operations: Operations that are directly related to the activities of the ordinary course of business and which are designed to exercise rights or comply with legal obligations or normally derived from the existence and activity of Company. Paragraph. If an operation by its nature does not allow pigeonholing into one of the classifications described in this Article, the operation is deemed of special character and shall follow all processes and procedures for administrative or support operations.

- Also, Article 65 of the Bylaws states that "disputes arising between shareholders due to their status as such, or between them and the Bank and/or its management due to the corporate contract, will be initially settled in a stage of direct negotiation in accordance with the procedure established by the Board, and if a settlement is not reached, shall be submitted to arbitration."
- In relation to the control architecture, the current structure is based on three lines of defense, made up of business and operating units as a first line, risk areas and internal audits as second and third lines of defense. Currently, a common and shared vision of the key positions in the internal audit, external audit and risk management areas is being implemented.

Measure No. 7: Conflict resolution.

7.1. Except for the disputes between shareholders, or between shareholders and the corporation or its Board of Directors that by explicit legal mandate must be settled necessarily before the ordinary jurisdiction, the corporation’s bylaws include conflict-resolution mechanisms such as direct agreements, amiable composition, settlement, or arbitration.

7.1 Measure Implementation SI ☒ NO ☐ N/A ☐

SI. Indique brevemente: The mechanisms for dispute resolution are listed in Article 65 of the Bylaws, which establishes that: "Differences arising between shareholders due to of their status as such, or between them and the Bank and/or its directors due of the corporate contract, will initially be settled in a direct negotiation stage under the procedure established by the Board, and in case of failure to reach a settlement shall be submitted to arbitration. In the latter case, the parties shall agree upon two arbitrators and these, in turn, shall agree upon a third. In case there is no agreement between the parties for the appointment of arbitrators, or between them for the appointment of the third, the appointment will correspond to the Banking Association at the request of either party. The arbitrators shall meet the qualifications required by law, and rule under law, without prejudice to reconciling the conflicting claims. The Court will meet in the city where the Bank has its main offices."

11.2. The corporation minimizes the use of blank-voting representatives or those without voting instructions by promoting actively the use of a standard letter of representation that the company conveys to the shareholders or publishes on its web site. The model features the points of the Agenda and the respective Agreement Proposals, determined under the procedures previously set forth, which will be submitted to the shareholders for consideration. The purpose is that shareholders, as they deem appropriate, may instruct their representatives about their voting on each case.

YES. Briefly indicate: Article 13 of the Manual on Conflicts of Interest and Use of Privileged Information provides that each operation carried out by the Bank with its related parties shall be framed within one of the following contexts:

"a) Securities Market Operations: Those operations in the process of issuance, placement, distribution and trading of securities registered in the National Registry of Securities and Issuers - RNVE.

The analysis, study and authorization of transactions will follow the definitions concerning limits and powers established by the Board of Directors through the Financial Risk Management Manual - MARF.

b) Ordinary Course Operations: Those operations established in the corporate purpose and authorized by law for entities supervised by the Financial Superintendence of Colombia.

The analysis, study and approval of related party transactions related to the granting or acquisition of goods or services, among others, that fall within the ordinary course of business of the Bank shall be conducted in accordance with the existing regulations in the different company manuals.

Ordinary course operations whose value equals or exceeds one billion pesos must be submitted to the Board for the respective analysis and approval, accompanied by the study referenced in Art. 20 of this section, if applicable.

c) Administrative or support operations: Operations that are directly related to ordinary course activities and are designed for exercising the rights or complying with legal obligations or those conventionally derived from the existence and activities of Company.

The analysis, study and authorization of transactions with related parties will follow the definitions on recruitment established by the Bank's management through the Procurement and Contracting Manual for the Bank and its subsidiaries.

However, transactions whose value is greater than or equal to two hundred fifty million pesos must be submitted to the Board for their respective analysis and approval, accompanied the study referenced in Art. 20 of the Conflict of Interest Manual, if applicable.

Disclosure of this information shall comply with the provisions of the applicable legislation, in particular to the provisions for disclosure in the notes to the financial statements and disclosure of relevant information.
